National Weather Service Issues Winter Storm Watch For Bergen
County From 7PM Saturday Through 11AM Sunday

Snow starts Saturday afternoon/evening and continues through Sunday morning. Total snow accumulation is expected to average 1 – 3 inches around the County. Slightly higher totals are possible North of Route 4, West of the Parkway. There is a potential for mixing that would cause a trace of ice on Sunday morning.

Temperatures will remain right around freezing for the event and will rise into the upper 30's by Sunday afternoon.

Winds will be 5 - 10 MPH with gusts up to 15 MPH.

We will continue to monitor this situation and issue updates as necessary.
