

WHY YOU GOT SICK

You got sick from TB when your body could no longer fight the germs. The germs “woke up” and started to grow and hurt your body. This is called “active TB disease” and this is what makes you feel sick.