“Implementing an Afrocentric Approach in Therapy”

Date: Thursday, June 20, 2019

Course times: 9:30 am – 3:30 pm
5 CE Hours

Location: One Bergen County Plaza, Room 460, Hackensack, NJ 07601

About the Course:

This course underscores the importance of implementing an Afrocentric approach to therapy when working with an African American clientele. The Afrocentric approach was developed as a response to a strictly Eurocentric approach to therapy which may not distinguish the risks, dilemmas and historical trauma that are unique to the African American population.

About the Instructor:

Yolanda Hawkins- Rodgers, Ed.D. LP, LPC, ACS, has a practice in Bergen County, New Jersey. She is a clinical consultant for Department of Child Protection and Permanency of New Jersey. Dr. Hawkins-Rodgers also supervises permit holders seeking licensure as psychologists, professional counselors and marriage and family therapists. She is the former chair of the department of Psychology and Counseling for undergraduate and graduate students at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Madison campus. Dr. Hawkins-Rodgers has developed and conducted numerous trainings on multicultural diversity for businesses and agencies both locally and regionally.
