Attachments

Please include the following items as supporting documentation:

_____ Labeled photographs of the site, at minimum

- Overview of the site
- Special features and/or associated structures
- Areas of concern (deterioration, structural issues etc.)

Photographs will be used to provide a reference point of current site conditions. They do not need to be high quality or printed professionally. An email with digital photographs or printed on regular paper and submitted with the completed Intent to Apply is acceptable.

_____ Proof of eligibility for or listing on the New Jersey or National Register of Historic Places either individually or as part of a historic district.

Please see the attached list of Bergen County historic sites listed on the New Jersey and National Register of Historic Places from the New Jersey Historic Preservation Office (NJ-HPO) website. If property/district is not listed on the Registers, you must apply to the NJ-HPO for a Certificate of Eligibility (CoE). The application for a CoE is included in this packet. The Bergen County Historic Preservation Advisory Board will not accept a grant application without either the CoE from NJHPO or verification that the site is already listed on the New Jersey or National Register of Historic Places.
